

OIL organize study visit of school students to its R&D Laboratories on 30.10.2021

Oil India Limited organised study visit of school students to R&D Laboratories of Oil India on 30th October 2021. The students from Madhuban LP School, Duliajan were explained how OIL carries out the research activities to understand hydrocarbon and find out solutions for Exploration, Drilling, Production & transportation. The scientists present at the Laboratory showed the students how crude oil looks and its basic nature

