

W8 : GAIL

WEBINAR ON ROLE OF ENERGY CONSERVATION & ALTERNATE ENERGY SOURCES TOWARDS INDIA'S GROWTH STRATEGY - 30th April '21

GAIL India Limited organized a Webinar on Role of Energy Conservation & Alternate Energy Sources towards India's Growth Strategy on 30th April 2021 under the aegis of Ministry of Petroleum & Natural Gas.

Shri Manoj Jain, C&MD GAIL delivered the welcome address on the occasion.

Shri Tarun Kapoor, IAS, Secretary, Ministry of Petroleum & Natural Gas delivered the key note address.

The event Briefing was done by Shri D V Shastry, Executive Director (Training, R&D and Start up) Panel Discussion was held further wherein the distinguished speakers from the Industry and Academic Institutes delivered the sessions as summarized below:

- A gas-based economy- One nation one gas grid – Faculty from GAIL
- Electrolytic Hydrogen-A future technology for energy storage by Prof. Suddhasatwa Basu, Director CSIR- Institute of Minerals & Materials Technology, Bhubaneswar
- Alternative Energy Sources: The Quest for Sustainable Renewable Energy in Indian Scenario – Shri Ashok K. Choudhury, Joint Director, Odisha Renewable Energy Development Agency (OREDA)
- Alternative Energy Sources: Sustainable Renewable Energy Technologies for India - Dr. C.N. Bhende, Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Bhubaneswar
- Charging the Future: Challenges and Opportunities for Electric Vehicle Adoption - Shri Pratik Gupta, Founder Storm motors, Mumbai/ Dr. P.Chandrasekhar, IIT, Bhubaneswar
- Energy Security of Odisha: Role of Forest Dr. Haribandhu Panda, Former Vice Chancellor at Centurion, University of Technology and Management (CUTM)

The webinar was organized through virtual mode (Cisco WebEx) and was webcast among the Senior officials of MoPNG, Oil & Gas PSU employees and student community.

